

Study Program: Master Academic Studies - Business Economics and Entrepreneurship
Course Title: Master's thesis – preparation and defense
Teacher(s): all teachers in the study program
Course Status: mandatory, first year, second semester
ECTS Credits: 6
Prerequisite: Passed all exams required by the study program
Goals final work : The goal of writing and defending a master's thesis is for the student to demonstrate that he or she has mastered the knowledge and acquired the competencies necessary for independent research and practical work in a specific scientific field and a satisfactory ability to apply theoretical and practical knowledge in the field of business. Economics and Entrepreneurship . By writing and defending a final thesis , students who have completed their studies should be able to solve real problems in practice. To continue their education at doctoral studies if they choose to do so.
Expected outcomes : Students are trained to recognize, formulate and analyze problems in the field of economics, which implies that the student develops an analytical and creative approach to solving theoretical and practical problems. Students are trained to solve specific problems individually and in teams in the fields of strategic business development, entrepreneurial and innovation management, organizational behavior, operations management, strategic marketing, financial reporting and control, business finance, etc. Graduates of this level of study possess the competences to apply knowledge in business practice, consulting firms , public administration, for-profit and non-profit organizations, financial institutions, etc.
General contents : The master's thesis represents a student's research work in which he becomes familiar with the research methodology in the field of business economics and entrepreneurship. After completing the research, the student prepares a final thesis in a form that contains the following chapters: introduction, theoretical part, (practical part), conclusion in which the student presents the results he has reached through the preparation of the master's thesis and a review of the literature used in the preparation of the thesis .
Methods performances : The final thesis is an independent work of the student, prepared in written form, with instructions and consultation with the mentor. The mentor for the preparation and defense of the final thesis formulates the topic with tasks for the preparation of the final thesis. The candidate, in consultation with the mentor and associate, works independently on the problem assigned to him. After the preparation of the thesis and the consent of the mentor that the work has been successfully completed, the candidate defends the thesis before a commission consisting of three members. The committee evaluates the final thesis with a descriptive grade: Failed, Passed, or Passed with Distinction. This grade is entered in the report on the defense of the final thesis and in the student index .
Hourly active classes	Lectures : 0	Exercises: 0	Others hours : 4
Rating knowledge (maximum number points 100) Master work and word of mouth defense Commission (mentor and two member) evaluates unique by rating .			