

Table 5.2. Course Specification
Study programme: First-cycle academic studies of the first level – Law
Course title: Arbitration Law
Instructor(s): Živorad M. Rašević
Course status: Elective, third year, sixth semester
ECTS: 6
Prerequisites: None
Course Aim The aim of the course is to acquaint students with the most significant institutions relevant to arbitration law, the basic characteristics of arbitration, the manner of concluding an arbitration agreement, the procedure before arbitral tribunals, the arbitral award, and the enforcement of the arbitral award.
Learning Outcomes Upon passing the exam, the student has acquired theoretical knowledge and understands the basic concepts of arbitration law; has mastered the knowledge and skills necessary for interpreting and practically applying arbitration rules (to explain the role and procedural powers of the participants in arbitral proceedings; to set out the purpose, content and course of arbitral proceedings; to interpret and apply the relevant rules; to draft a submission, an arbitral award and other documents in accordance with procedural rules).
Course Content Theoretical instruction 1. Introduction to the course; 2. Concept of arbitration; 3. Sources of law on arbitration in procedure; 4. Arbitration agreement; 5. Composition and constitution of the arbitral tribunal; 6. Proceedings before arbitral tribunals; 7. Arbitral tribunal; 8. Parties in arbitral proceedings; 9. Representatives and interveners; 10. Mediation procedure; 11. Initiation of arbitral proceedings; 12. Course of arbitral proceedings by decision-making; 13. Arbitral award; 14. Settlement in arbitral proceedings; 15. Enforcement of arbitral awards. Practical instruction Further clarification of some of the topics covered in lectures, with special emphasis on the interpretation and practical application of arbitration rules. Case studies, conclusion of an arbitration agreement, management of arbitral proceedings, hearing in arbitral proceedings, conclusion of arbitral proceedings, etc. Discussion of selected topics with active student participation. Preparation for colloquia and the exam. Evaluation of teaching and analysis of its results.
Literature Born G., International Commercial Arbitration, Wolters Kluwer, 2021. Blackaby N., Partasides C., Redfern A., Hunter M., Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration, Oxford University Press, 2022. Lew J., Mistelis L., Kröll S., Comparative International Commercial Arbitration, Kluwer Law International, 2003. Moses M., The Principles and Practice of International Commercial Arbitration, Cambridge University Press, 2024..
Hours of active teaching:	Theoretical instruction: 30	Practical instruction: 15

Teaching Methods Lectures are delivered through oral and visual presentations, reading and text-based work, and interactive instruction with students. Exercises are conducted through analysis of individual case studies from arbitration practice, simulations of individual phases of arbitral proceedings, student presentations on pre-assigned topics, and preparation for colloquia and exams.
Knowledge Assessment (maximum points: 100)

Pre-exam obligations	Points	Final exam	Points
Activity during lectures	20	Written exam	-
Colloquium – first	15	Oral exam	50
Colloquium – second	15		-