

Study program: Bachelor Academic Studies: Business Economics , module 1 – Finance, Banking and Insurance
Subject name: Final thesis subject
Teacher : Mentor
Course status: mandatory, fourth year, eighth semester
Number of ECTS: 2
Requirement : 210 ECTS credits achieved
Subject objective Preparing students for independent research work on the final thesis. With the help of a mentor, the student examines, presents the methodology and solves a specific current problem using research methods, applying theoretical and applied knowledge acquired during studies.
Course outcome Upon completion of the course, the student is familiar with the basic methods of scientific and professional work in the broader field of business economics, finance, banking and insurance. The student is able to use the acquired knowledge, to study and research topics in this scientific field.
Course content Science and scientific work. Problem and scientific problem. Hypothesis and hypothesis verification. Scientific observation and scientific experiment. General methodology of scientific calculation. Classification of research. Experimental research. Code of ethics for scientific research. Concept of authorship and intellectual property. Classification of scientific work. Citation. Review. Oral presentation. Assistance with presentation (presentation, transparencies). Writing a professional and scientific paper.
Recommended literature: 1. Popović, Z.: How to write and publish a scientific work , Academic Thought, Belgrade, 1999. ISBN - 86-7466-001-0
Number of hours of active teaching		Lectures:0	Research paper: 6
Teaching methods Frontal, group, individual and practical method.
Knowledge score (maximum number of points 100)
Pre-exam obligations	Points	Final exam	point
Activity during the lecture		Oral exam	70
Practical teaching
Colloquiums
Seminar papers	30	Total	100